

Best Brand in Education

Tunku Abdul Rahman College has been awarded the Best Brands in Education for the college category! Winning The Brand Laureate – SMEs Chapter Award 2009 is the perfect top-up to the celebration of the College 40 golden years of growth and glory. Dr Tan Chik Heok, the Principal of TAR College received the Award from Guest-of-Honour, Tan Sri Rafidah Binti Abdul Aziz, the former Minister of International Trade and Industry on behalf the college at the Gala Dinner on January , 2010 at the Shangri-La Hotel. Winning the brand award has definitely reaffirms the college's capability and excellence in delivering quality and affordable education to many young Malaysians. The college's passion and effort in providing holistic teaching and quality programmes has surely been rewarded well! Nevertheless, the college remains more committed than ever to bring the benefits of higher education to many more youths. Looks like it's a brand new era to another 40 golden years of guaranteed quality education...or even more. Congratulations again Tunku Abdul Rahman College! You do Malaysia proud!
