Deserving upgrade for TAR College

By P. ARUNA

After producing quality graduates for over four decades, TAR College has now been declared a university college.

Turning hardship into sweet success

By T. L. LEE

The institution produces high quality accounting graduates who are widely sought after by employers. Students are also actively involved in student organizations.

Chefs at work: Culinary students busily preparing food at the college's campus.

Chef at work: Culinary students busily preparing food at the college's campus.

Time of hearts: Students and lecturers hanging up paper hearts on a tree during a green move.

In the Limelight

After producing quality graduates for over four decades, TAR College has now been declared a university college.

Turning hardship into sweet success

By T. L. LEE

The institution produces high quality accounting graduates who are widely sought after by employers. Students are also actively involved in student organizations.

Turning hardship into sweet success

By T. L. LEE

The institution produces high quality accounting graduates who are widely sought after by employers. Students are also actively involved in student organizations.

TAR College In the Limelight